Congratulations on your decision to explore the field of professional organizing!

Chances are you have been organized all your life and people constantly remark about your skills ~ and now you feel that it is time to explore the possibility of putting your passion to work for you.

If you wish to create and operate your own successful organizing business, you may be interested in the Comprehensive Training Program for Professional Organizers® currently being offered in various cities in North America.

These seminars give you that quantum leap needed to operate a successful organizing business and achieve your full potential in the shortest timeframe possible. Each seminar is based on proven systems and methodologies, practical experience and in-depth awareness, and covers topics of vital importance to manage and grow your business.

You will learn from Certified Professional Organizers® and other professionals who will share highly relevant perspectives, valuable insights and anecdotes to help you create a blueprint for starting and running your own successful business. The live seminar experience provides you with invaluable interaction and the opportunity to share, discuss and ask questions about the organizing industry with seasoned professionals and other individuals who are in various degrees of starting and operating their own organizing businesses.

As an added bonus, you can also receive a $50.00 rebate by simply printing this letter and presenting it on the first day of the seminars. If you would like further details about this intensive program, please visit www.professionalorganizers.com/comprehensive-training-program.html.

There are a few great industry associations that may be of interest as well. For information about professional associations around the world, please visit organizing-business.com.

Good luck with your decision!
